Reflection

*Non nobis domine, domine,
Non nobis domine,
Sed nomine, sed nomine,
Tuo da gloriam.*

*Not to us, O Lord, O Lord
Not to us, O Lord,
But to your name, to your name
Give glory.*

- Latin text of Psalm 115.1

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

- Ephesians 3.20-21

Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

- Hebrews 13.20-21

The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.

Call to Worship

Revelation 1.4-8

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth.

To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him, and all tribes of the earth will wail on account of him.

Even so. Amen.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is and who was
and who is to come, the Almighty.”

Even so. Amen.

O God Beyond All Praising, no. 660

Confession Our Sin

Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory,
for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness!

Psalm 115.1

With a few moments of silent reflection and prayer, let us consider how we have lived for our own glory, promoting or protecting ourselves, instead of being concerned primarily with God's glory ...

Father, we confess to you and before our brothers and sisters in Christ, that we have pursued our own glory instead of yours. You see all our sins and shortcomings, our failures are before you. We make no excuse. We own them as our own. We simply plead your merciful forgiveness, for the sake of your steadfast love. We plead the name of Jesus, confident that you are faithful to your promise that all who come to you by faith in Jesus will be saved. Cleanse us. Free us. Heal us. Empower us to walk in the newness of life for which Christ died, for which you sent your Spirit to us. All in Jesus' name and for the sake of your glory. Amen.

Worthy (Behold the Lamb of God)

Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb.

Worthy, worthy, worthy is the Lamb.

*Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away our sins,
The holy Lamb of God, who makes new life begin.*

Holy, holy, holy is the Lamb.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lamb.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lamb.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lamb.

Mylon LeFevre, 1988

God Moves in a Mysterious Way

God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea, and rides upon the storm.
Yes, he rides upon the storm.

Deep in unfathomable mines, of never failing skill
He treasures up his bright designs, and works his sovereign will.
Yes, he works his sovereign will.

*Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take, the clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy and shall break, in blessings on your head.*

Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, but trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence, he hides a smiling face.
Yes, he hides a smiling face

His purposes will ripen fast, unfolding ev'ry hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste, but sweet will be the flow'r.
O, yes, sweet will be the flow'r.

Blind unbelief is sure to err, and scan his work in vain;
God is His own interpreter, and he will make it plain.
O, yes, he will make it plain.

*Words: William Cowper, 1774
Music: Scottish Psalter, 1615
Arr. by Brian Liedstrand, 2006*

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Psalm 115

(p510 pew Bible)

Song of Response

Yet Not I, But Through Christ In Me

What gift of grace is Jesus, our Redeemer.
There is no more for heaven now to give.
He is our joy, our righteousness and freedom,
Our steadfast love, our deep and boundless peace.
To this I hold: my hope is only Jesus!
For my life is wholly bound to his.
Oh how strange and divine, I can sing all is mine!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

The night is dark, but we are not forsaken,
For by our side the Saviour, he will stay.
We labour on in weakness and rejoicing,
For in our need, his power is displayed.
To this I hold: my Shepherd will defend me.
Through the deepest valley he will lead.
Oh the night has been won, and I shall overcome!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

No fate we dread, we know we are forgiven,
The future sure, the price, it has been paid.
For Jesus bled and suffered for our pardon,
And he was raised to overthrow the grave.
To this I hold: my sin has been defeated.
Jesus now, and ever, is my plea.
Oh the chains are released, I can sing, I am free!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

With ev'ry breath we long to follow Jesus,
For he has said that he will bring us home.
And day by day we know he will renew us
Until we stand with joy before the throne.
To this I hold: my hope is only Jesus!
All the glory evermore to him.
When the race is complete, still my lips shall repeat:
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

The Covenant Meal

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell*. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

* 'hell' here means the realm of death, not 'place of eternal torment'

 'catholic' here means 'universal'

Sometimes called 'Communion' or the 'Eucharist', this simple meal, instituted by Jesus himself, signifies to us the reality of his ministry on behalf of his people. The elements of bread and wine are simple and yet by God's power and his Spirit's blessing are both a sign and seal of God's love, demonstrated to us in the body and blood of Jesus Christ, broken and shed for all who believe.

Those receiving communion will please come forward when prepared to do so. Please note: the common cups and the outer rings of the trays are wine.

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen, amen.

Benediction

Numbers 6.24-26

*Beloved, the LORD bless you and keep you;
the LORD make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you;
the LORD lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace,
now and forevermore, through Jesus, our King and our Savior.*
